

Upasana School of Performing Arts is an endeavour of Gujarat University . It has been started with keeping in mind the changing cultural scenario and seeing to the demands of today's youth for literacy in culture. Upasana School of Performing Arts in the Gujarat University has uplifted the level & aesthetics of education giving it an artistic approach and openness. Art has no barrier & we have also seen that through art , especially performing arts , education can be demonstrated & explained even better.

In the formal education of performing arts at " Upasana " we aim to impart through the University a Masters Degree course having equal stress in performing & the aural aspects. With highly qualified teaching faculty , ambience & facilities this department is sure to do well in coming future.
